

One Word Substitution

- Sojourn – A short stay at home
- Ornithologist- one who specialises in the study of birds.
- Red- Tapism- too much official formality.
- Amnesia- loss of memory.
- Cynic- one who thinks that human nature is essential evil.
- Ambidextrous- one who can use either of his hands with ease.
- Masque- a dramatic performance.
- Versatile- one who possesses many talents.
- Lullaby- a song to put babies to sleep.
- Pacifism- belief that war and violence are unjustified.
- Agnostic- one who believes that nothing can be said about God.
- Prolific- producing a lot of books and other things.
- Asylum- place of good climate for invalids.

- Chronicle- record of events in the order of their happenings.
- Hospitality- receiving guests warmly.
- Graphologist- one who analyses hand writing.
- Omnibus- gathering of all things.
- Ambiguous- having more than one meaning.
- Misogynist- hater of marriage.
- Misologist- hater of learning.
- Misobiblic- hater of books.
- Senate- governing body of a university.
- Monarchy- government by a king/queen.
- Theocracy- government by divine laws.
- Republic- government by elected representative without a monarch.
- Bureaucracy- government by officials.

By, Arshad Khan

Dept. of English

J N College Madhubani