

Degree - i (Sub)

Subject- English Language

Narration – Direct and Indirect Speech

Examples Worked Out

Direct

Indirect

‘Can you see me tomorrow?’ He asked me, He asked me if I could see him the
the next day.

He said, ‘Is Mohan your brother?’

He asked me whether Mohan was his brother.

Raja said, ‘Good morning’

Raja wished me a good morning.

He said to his servant, ‘Leave my house
at once,

He ordered his servant to leave his
at once.

He said, ‘May God bless you’

He prayed that God might bless me.

She said, ‘Go home’

She told/asked me to go home.

He said, Has Puja spent all the money?’

He wanted to know or enquire if had spent all the money.

Mona said, 'Please say anything about it' Mona asked me to tell anything about it.

The commander said, 'Don't move, boys.' He ordered the boys not to move.

'Don't let anybody in,' said the master The master ordered the servant not to the servant. to let anybody in.

'What a beautiful sight!' my friend said. My friend exclaimed that it was a very very beautiful view.

He said, 'What a lovely garden!' He remarked what a lovely garden it was.

They said, 'Hurrah! We have won They exclaimed with joy that they had won the cup.' the cup.

By, Arshad Khan

Dept. of English

J N College Madhubani